ALLIED COUNCIL SANCTIONS MEET ON ECONOMICS

Germany and Russia May Be Allowed To Enter
Conference.

HARVEY NOT TO SPEAK

American Ambassador Has
No Program To Place
Before Allies.

CANNES, France, Jan. 6.—The allied supreme council today approved unanimously the calling of an international economic conference, to be participated in by Germany and Russia.

Premier Briand convened the council for today's conference at which it is considered measures for the economic restoration of Europe.

George Harvey, American Ambassador to Great Britain, who is acting as official observer for the United States at the conference, told the correspondent that he had no intention of speaking at the first session and no program to place before the allies, as has been rumored.

He was non-committal when asked if he would outline the American view-point of the world economic situation if pressed to do so, saying he would "jump that fence" when he came to it.

Shifted to Committees.
The council is shifting a great deal of the work on committees of experts, so as to be free to discuss the larger aspects of the questions on its program. Consideration of all features of the proposed international economic conference will thus continue in committee while the council is engaged upon other questions.

The reparations experts will also go on with their efforts to reach a basis of agreement as to how to facilitate payments by Germany, and how to divide the first 1,000,000,000 gold marks which are in the hands of the reparations commission.

Britain to Aid France.
CANNES, France, Jan. 6.—Prime Minister Lloyd George has declared that there can be no question at this time of alliance between France and Great Britain, it is said on good authority, but has held out the prospect of a sufficient guaranty to aid France if she is again attacked, as in 1914, under certain conditions.

They are, it is stated, that France co-operate with Great Britain in the economic restoration of Europe and consent to modification in the reparations payments by Germany on the basis of the suggestion in the recent London conference of a half billion gold marks in cash payments and a billion gold marks on time, instead of 2 billion marks in cash.

Abolish Prejudice.
CANNES, France, Jan. 6.—Premier Lloyd George, addressing the opening session of the allied supreme council today, warned the allied powers that they could look to no one but themselves to work out the economic rehabilitation of Europe. He appealed to the allies to set aside prejudices and work together to this end.

Mr. Lloyd George declared that the allies had reached a point where they must act decisively and broadly if the economic structure of Europe was to be saved. Asking permission to speak freely on the subject of German reparations, Mr. Lloyd George said:

"This is impossible unless it can be by general agreement of the allies. Failing of this, the fruits of peace will not be gathered."

John Wanamaker Is Confused in Report of Kinsman's Death

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 6.—Whitney Wesley Wanamaker, a southern planter, died at a local hotel here yesterday and this morning the undertaker in charge of the body announced the death as that of John Wanamaker, the merchant and former postmaster general.

The mistake in identity was furthered by an announcement at the Biscayne Yacht Club that John Wanamaker was in Florida waters on his private yacht. The false report spread all over the south and got as far as Philadelphia before it was overtaken, when it was announced that John Wanamaker was alive and well, in his office there.

AMERICAN RELIEF TO SAVE VOLGA STARVING

MOSCOW, Jan. 6.—William A. Haskell, director of the American Relief administration in Russia, returned to Russia from London via Riga yesterday, optimistic of helping save, chiefly through the American $20,000,000 appropriation, five to ten million adults and children otherwise probably doomed to die of starvation in the Volga region.

One third of the ten million dollars in gold which the soviet government agreed to deposit in Stockholm for the purpose of buying seed grain in the United States is available, Mr. Haskell said.

ARMORE CHIEF OPEN FOR PROBE

Hignight Declares He Is Willing For Record
To Be Well Aired.

ARDMORE, Jan. 6.—An entire willingness on the part of Chief of Police Hignight to have all charges against him thoroughly threshed out and a disposition on the part of City Manager Dyer to take no action whatever until he has had time to make a careful investigation of charges that led to attempts to oust the chief, are latest developments in the Hignight angle of the ouster proceedings.

Assistant Attorney General Fulton came to Ardmore with a petition ready to file against Chief Hignight, but found after he arrived here that it was not possible because of the restrictions of the city charter.

The fact that Chief Hignight has remained as chief throughout the agitation of the past few weeks is taken as an indication that the city manager and commissioners are inclined to back him. It is generally commented that Hignight has closed up a number of liquor joints and that he has further made life a burden for negro solicitors and gamblers.

For the present at least, nothing will be done so far as Chief Hignight is concerned. City Manager Dyer intimated that he was going squarely into charges contained in the attorney general's petition, if the records were available.

In explaining the position of the attorney general's department in this connection, Judge Fulton, declared: "My authority is limited to filing charges against officers who fail to perform duties enjoined upon them by the laws of the state. The duties of the chief of police of Ardmore are enjoined by the city charter, not by the statutes of Oklahoma, but by the charter of the city of Ardmore. In my tentative plans I did not reckon with the fact that Ardmore was being operated under the commission form of government."

"Merely a Hired Man"
Chief of Police Hignight when asked for a statement regarding the proceedings this morning said: "I have nothing of interest to say about the matter, I never had an idea that I was amenable under these charges, and was merely letting things take their course. I am simply a hired man and as such am going on about my business as though nothing had happened."

Relative to a news story appearing in an Oklahoma City paper this morning stating that he as chief of police was unable to get along with Sheriff Garrett and his forces, Mr. Hignight stated that it was an error, that he and the sheriff always cooperated with each other, and any statement to the contrary was wrong.

Captains of "Subs"
May Be Prohibited
From Making Attack

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Agreed upon abolition as between themselves of all submarine warfare against merchant ships, it remains for the five naval powers of the arms conference today to emphasize this declaration through adoption of the third Root proposal to declare violation of the rules laid down for submarine an act of piracy for which the submarine commander could be held personally accountable.

Indications were that this proposal would also be adopted and the matter of submarine regulation finally disposed of at the naval committee meeting today.

DEVALERA QUIT AND CABINET IS DECLARED OPEN

President of Irish Says That a Split on Treaty Is Irrevocable.

CIVIL STRIFE FEARED

"Peace Out of Question
Alone," Says Leader.

(By the Associated Press)
DUBLIN, Jan. 6.—Eamonn de Valera resigned the presidency of the Irish republic today, presenting also to the Dail Eireann the resignation of the cabinet. He told the Dail he would offer himself for reelection standing on the principles of 1916.

Mr. De Valera said he must have a cabinet which thought with him and he would demand that all resources be given him to defend the republic.

DUBLIN, Jan. 6.—Official announcement was made this afternoon that Eamonn de Valera has resigned the presidency of the Irish republic.

President de Valera, in announcing his resignation to the Dail, said the cabinet also had resigned. Mr. De Valera opened this afternoon's session of the Dail, by stating that the split over the treaty was fundamental and irrevocable.

Before the session opened Liam Roiside, of Cork, said the situation was extremely critical and he feared civil strife might ensue from the division of the country on the treaty.

Dail Badly Split.
At the opening of the afternoon session, Mr. de Valera said that since the treaty was signed in London the executive authorities of the Dail had been striving to keep nominally and uniformly together, but the time had come for that to be ended.

The president said he and one section of the cabinet stood for the preservation of the republic and the other section for quite another plan. There can be no peace, Mr. de Valera declared, until the principle was recognized that the Irish people want to live their own lives without the imposition of outside authorities.

Is Sick at Heart.
DUBLIN, Jan. 6.—Eamonn de Valera, after announcing today in the Dail Eireann his resignation as president of the Irish republic, declared he was sick at heart and that whatever happened, he intended to retire to private life. He spoke with great feeling, with tears in his eyes, when he protested he had never been a party to any political trickery.

Blocker is said to have been wounded in the left arm with a shotgun, following an alleged exchange of shots. Blocker is said to have used a revolver in the fight.

FOUR MARRIAGES TO ONE DIVORCE

Wedding Permits in County
Show Increase in 1921
Over Previous Year.

Cupid, saucy little god of love, defied the general economic depression last year and increased his 1920 records of marriage licenses in the county by exactly 100, according to records in the office of Court Clerk L. E. Franklin.

During the year 1920, a total of 418 marriage licenses were issued. Last year, the number of wedding permits jumped to 518 in spite of the fact that holiday seasons did not bring their usual rush into the marriage market.

Divorce courts of the county, however, suffered some from the financial stress. While the 518 wedding permits were being issued, only 132 divorce cases were filed, or slightly more than one to every four legal permission to marry. The divorce records for last year is understood to be slightly less than that for the preceding year.

Court officials have advanced two statements to explain the decrease in divorces last year. "In hard times even the small amount required to procure a divorce is prohibitive to many who, in better times, could easily afford it," one court attache said today.

"When life is toughest, a man and his wife are likely to stick together more closely," was the theory advanced by another court official.

Even a greater increase in matrimony would have been recorded if there had been less doubt in financial circles, it is said. Nothing but the fear of finances for the future kept down an unusually heavy run on the stock of wedding permits.

"Men who two years ago would not have hesitated to commit matrimony, have thought twice and have decided not to venture in too deep until there is more light ahead on how they are going to meet their bills," one county official declared.

THREATS OF VOLCANO FRIGHTEN VILLAGERS

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 6.—The volcano Popocatepetl, southeast of this city, again began to show serious signs of activity yesterday afternoon. At four o'clock an explosion was heard within the crater, the sounds being audible for some distance, and a great smoke column arose to a considerable height, being visible in this city.

The inhabitants of villages near the base of the volcano were panic stricken and stampeded towards the larger towns further away from the volcano. No earth shocks have been registered.

TWO FAST GAMES ARE DUE TONIGHT

Business College Resolves
To Get Scalp of Head
Team in League.

With the agreement between the Business College and Teachers College that they play their game, scheduled for next Monday night, tonight, a double-header, instead of the single game between the Battery F and Ada News teams, will be on the bill. That will leave one game for next Monday night between the high school and cement plant teams.

The second team of the Teachers College was defeated at Konawa last night, while none of the first team men have had any games since the holidays. The Business College won its last game with a new line-up and this puts the dope on tonight's game more evenly balanced. Spurred on by their victory, the Business College is laying plans to do that which has not yet been done—defeat the Teachers College.

Although the Ada News team lost its game Monday night to the Business College, manager Waner states that it has been to the advantage of the News team. With Stotts and Craig on his line-up he reports that his men have been showing up well during a series of work-outs this week. At the same time Battery F, which has been going strong during the past two weeks, is now weakened by the loss of Payne at guard, who is out on account of injuries. This balances the dope here and give promise for two hot and fast games tonight.

The first game will be called at 7:30. Sam Wilenzick, manager of the Battery F team, reports that he is using Coleman in place of Payne. Payne has played a good game at guard, making it possible several times for his squad to win. He expects to be able to be playing again in a few weeks. Dopesters have not yet expressed themselves as to what effect this will have on the battery men. The Ada News team suffered a relapse with the loss of Cooper at guard earlier in the season, and it is talked that the same thing might result in this case.

USING OF POISON GAS IS ATTACKED

Arms Conference To Take Up Consideration of
New Menace.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Consideration of the submarine questions was concluded today by the five naval powers committee with the adoption of the final Root resolution declaring submarine commanders, who with or without orders from their governments, violate the existing international law on submarine warfare, to be guilty of piracy.

The American delegation, through Mr. Root, thereupon proposed forward a new proposal to prohibit the use of poison gas in future wars. It was said to have been received favorably, but a decision went over until tomorrow meeting.

The Root resolution, as adopted by the naval committee, was widened in its adoption so that this application would be not only to commanders of submarines which might violate the recognized laws of war, but also commanders of naval vessels of any character. The reason for this modification of the original Root proposal was not disclosed in the official announcement which carried the resolution as it was adopted.

FITZGIBBONS IS CRUSHED AS CAR IS OVERTURNED

Funeral of Service Man To Be Held Here Sunday Afternoon.

TWO OTHERS INJURED

Chief and Driver Bruised
When Thrown Free
From Crash.

Pat Fitzgibbons, volunteer fireman, was killed almost instantly at noon today and two other firemen, Chief Somer Jones and Eugene Edsal, driver, slightly injured when a chemical truck was overturned as the department was responding to an alarm turned in from a burning car on the Frisco tracks.

Fitzgibbons was about 26 years old and had been with the local fire department since last September, according to Chief Jones. He lives at Sixth and Stockton and is unmarried.

The accident occurred a few minutes after 12 o'clock today. The truck was speeding west on Twelfth street and became unmanageable after hitting a rough place in the street between Stockton and Cherry avenues. It turned completely over and Fitzgibbons, who was riding on the side, was pinned beneath it. Jones and Edsal were thrown free and sustained only bruises from which they are expected to recover rapidly.

Doctors at the local hospital, where the dying fireman was rushed as soon as he could be extricated from the debris of the wrecked fire truck, said he was badly crushed in his left side and breast and that the left leg was broken. He lived about 20 minutes.

The chemical truck was almost a complete loss. Wheels of the machine were smashed and chemical tanks torn from the body of the car. The engine was understood not to have been badly damaged. Funeral services for Fitzgibbons, who was a veteran of the world war, will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home, Sixth and Stockton. Local firemen and the American Legion III have charge of the services and burial will be in Rosedale cemetery.

Ada fire-fighters said this afternoon Fitzgibbons was considered a plucky volunteer and efficient member of the force.

RAILWAY SEEKS TO SHOW TAXES WERE TOO MUCH

A suit which, upon its completion, promises to set a precedent of considerable interest and importance in the light of taxation in Pontotoc county, was filed yesterday in the district court by the Atchison, Topeka, and Santa Fe railway company against D. W. Swaffar, county treasurer, seeking the refund of taxes under protest.

The railway company is represented by the law firm of Cottingham, Hayes, Green and Melnic, Oklahoma City, and B. H. Epperson, local attorney. February 4 has been set as a date for the hearing.

Santa Fe attorneys allege in their petition that the assessed valuation of the company's property in Pontotoc county for 1921 was $441,987. They claim that the county excise board made a total tax levy in the sum of 7.8 mills which included a levy of 3.555 mills for special purposes and a levy of 4.245 mills for current expenses.

Of this last mill levy, it is claimed, .245 is illegal and void as "it is in excess of the maximum mill levy of 4 mills authorized by law to be made for general purposes, exclusive of interest and sinking fund, and raises the company's taxes by the sum of $108.28."

The company has paid the first half of $54.14, of this amount, it is set forth in the petition, but did so under protest. It now seeks judgment for the repayment of the amount paid under protest with interest.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin
Pores.

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, impurities and clears the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

Dick Parker spent Friday night with his cousin, Louie Redman, and Will Abitte, Steward Rice, and Bud Pervine made a business trip to Ada Saturday.

Quite a crowd from Worstell surprised Walnut Grove and Egypt by going to Egypt Friday night. The little school of Walnut Grove debated and ciphered with Egypt, which was very interesting to all. The speakers of Walnut Grove were Homer Danley and Miss Dovie Agee. The speakers at Egypt were John Tisdale and Harry Lunsford. Egypt held that there were smarter men before 1492 than there are now, but there judges said there are smarter men now than there were before 1492. So the debate is in the favor of Walnut Grove and the ciphering in favor of Egypt.

Local College Has Attendance Double High Mark for 1920

Although present financial and industrial conditions have affected attendance of high schools and other institutions of education in Oklahoma, East Central Teachers college has made an increase in attendance since February 1920 of 113 percent, or more than doubled its regular attendance, President A. Linscheid, head of the college, stated yesterday afternoon.

This includes an increase of 153 students over the regular attendance of last year at this date, he said. Last year's summer school attendance almost reached the 1,200 mark, but it was roughly estimated that judging by the present outlook the attendance for the summer session will be swelled to about 1,500. One of the main factors in the increase of attendance is the growing warm feeling between the institution and the high schools over its district.

ALLIED COUNCIL SANCTIONS MEET ON ECONOMICS

Germany and Russia May Be Allowed To Enter Conference.

HARVEY NOT TO SPEAK

American Ambassador Has No Program To Place Before Allies.

CANNES, France, Jan. 6.—The allied supreme council today approved unanimously the calling of an international economic conference, to be participated in by Germany and Russia.

Premier Briand convened the council for today's conference at which it is to consider measures for the economic restoration of Europe.

George Harvey, American Ambassador to Great Britain, who is acting as official observer for the United States at the conference, told the correspondent that he had no intention of speaking at the first session and no program to place before the allies, as has been rumored.

He was non-committal when asked if he would outline the American view-point of the world economic situation if pressed to do so, saying he would "jump that fence" when he came to it.

Shifted to Committees. The council is shifting a great deal of the work on committees of experts, so as to be free to discuss the larger aspects of the questions on its program. Consideration of all features of the proposed international corporations and the international economic conference will thus continue in committee while the council is engaged upon other questions.

The reparations experts will also go on with their efforts to reach a basis of agreement as to how to facilitate payments by Germany, and how to divide the first 1,000,000,000 gold marks which are in the hands of the reparations commission.

Britain to Aid France.

CANNES, France, Jan. 6.—Prime Minister Lloyd George has declared that there can be no question at this time of alliance between France and Great Britain, it is said on good authority, but has held out the prospects of a sufficient guaranty to aid France if she is again attacked, as in 1914, under certain conditions.

They are, it is stated, that France co-operate with Great Britain in the economic restoration of Europe and consent to modification in the reparations payments by Germany on the basis of the suggestion in the recent London conference of a half billion gold marks in cash payments and a billion gold marks on time, instead of 2 billion marks on cash.

Abolish Prejudice.

CANNES, France, Jan. 6.—Premier Lloyd George, addressing the opening session of the allied supreme council today, warned the allied powers that they could look to no one but themselves to work out the economic rehabilitation of Europe. He appealed to the allies to get aside prejudices and work together to this end.

Mr. Lloyd George declared that the allies had reached a point where they must act decisively and broadly if the economic structure of Europe was to be saved. Asking permission to speak freely on the subject of German reparations, Mr. Lloyd George said:

"This is impossible unless it can be by general agreement of the allies. Failing of this, the fruits of peace will rot ungathered."

John Wanamaker Is Confused in Report of Kinsman's Death

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 6.—Whitney Wesley Wanamaker, a southern planter, died at a local hotel here yesterday and this morning the undertaker in charge of the body announced the death as that of John Wanamaker, the merchant and former postmaster general.

The mistake in identity was furthered by an announcement at the Biscayne Yacht Club that John Wanamaker was in Florida waters on his private yacht. The false report spread all over the south and got as far as Philadelphia before it was overtaken, when it was announced there that John Wanamaker was alive and well, in his office there.

AMERICAN RELIEF TO SAVE VOLGA STARVERS

MOSCOW, Jan. 6.—William A. Haskell, director of the American Relief administration in Russia, returned to Russia from London via Riga yesterday, optimistic of helping save, chiefly through the American $20,000,000 appropriation, five to ten million adults and children otherwise probably doomed to die of starvation in the Volga region.

One third of the ten million dollars in gold which the soviet government agreed to deposit in Stockholm for the purpose of buying seed grain in the United States is available, Mr. Haskell said.

ARMORE CHIEF OPEN FOR PROBE

Hignight Declares He Is Willing For Record To Be Well Aired.

ANDMORE, Jan. 6.—An entire willingness on the part of Chief of Police Hignight to have all charges against him thoroughly threshed out and a disposition on the part of City Manager Dyer to take no action whatever until he has had time to make a careful investigation of charges that led to attempts to oust the chief, are the latest developments in the Hignight angle of the ouster proceedings.

Assistant Attorney General Fulton came to Andmore with a petition ready to file against Chief Hignight, but found after he arrived here that it was not possible because of the restrictions of the city charter.

Criticism was voiced on the streets of Andmore Thursday for the attorney general department's handling of the Hignight affair. Those who strongly support Chief Hignight feel that he has been done an injury and that the attorney general's department was not careful enough in its action.

Fuer Ready to Act. The fact that Chief Hignight has remained as chief throughout the agitation of the past few weeks is taken as an indication that the city manager and commissioners are inclined to back him. It is generally commented that Hignight has closed up a number of liquor joints and that he has further made life a burden for negro solicitors and gamblers.

For the present at least, nothing will be done so far as Chief Hignight is concerned. City Manager Dyer intimated that he was going squarely into charges contained in the attorney general's petition, if the records were available.

In explaining the position of the attorney general's department in this connection, Judge Fulton, declared: "My authority is limited to filing charges against officers who fail to perform duties enjoined upon them by the laws of the state. The duties of the chief of police of Andmore are enjoined, I find, not by the statutes of Oklahoma, but by the charter of the city of Andmore. In my tentative plans I did not reckon with the fact that Andmore was being operated under the commission form of government."

"Merely a Hired Man" Chief of Police Hignight when asked for a statement regarding the proceedings this morning said: "I have nothing of interest to say about the matter. I never had an idea that I was amenable under these charges, and was merely letting things take their course. I am simply a hired man and as such am going on about my business as though nothing had happened."

Relative to a news story appearing in an Oklahoma City paper this morning stating that he as chief of police was unable to get along with Sheriff Garrett and his forces, Mr. Hignight stated that it was an error, that he and the sheriff always cooperated with each other, and any statement to the contrary was wrong.

Captains of "Subs" May Be Prohibited From Making Attack

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Agreed upon abolition as between themselves of all submarine warfare against merchant ships, it remains for the five naval powers of the arms conference today to emphasize this declaration through adoption of the third Root proposal to declare violation of the rules laid down for submarine an act of piracy for which the submarine commander could be held personally accountable.

Indications were that this proposal would also be adopted and the matter of submarine regulation finally disposed of at the naval committee meeting today.

DEVALERA QUILTS AND CABINET IS DECLARED OPEN

President of Irish Says That a Split on Treaty Is Irrevocable.

CIVIL STRIFE FEARED

"Peace Out of Question Until Irish Are Left Alone," Says Leader.

(By the Associated Press)

DUBLIN, Jan. 6.—Eamonn de Valera resigned the presidency of the Irish republic today, presenting also to the Dail Eireann the resignation of the cabinet. He told the Dail he would offer himself for reelection standing on the principles of 1916.

Mr. De Valera said he must have a cabinet which thought with him and he would demand that all resources be given him to defend the republic.

DUBLIN, Jan. 6.—Official announcement was made this afternoon that Eamonn de Valera has resigned the presidency of the Irish republic.

President de Valera, in announcing his resignation to the Dail, said the cabinet also had resigned.

Mr. De Valera opened this afternoon's session of the Dail, by stating that the split over the treaty was fundamental and irrevocable.

Before the session opened Liam Roiside, of Cork, said the situation was extremely critical and he feared civil strife might ensue from the division of the country on the treaty.

Dail Badly Split. At the opening of the afternoon session, Mr. de Valera said that since the treaty was signed in London the executive authorities of the Dail had been striving to keep nominally and uniformly together, but the time had come for that to be ended.

The president said he and one section of the cabinet stood for the preservation of the republic and the other section for quite another plan.

There can be no peace, Mr. de Valera declared, until the principle was recognized that the Irish people want to live their own lives without the imposition of outside authorities.

Is Sick at Heart.

DUBLIN, Jan. 6.—Eamonn de Valera, after announcing today in the Dail Eireann his resignation as president of the Irish republic, declared he was sick at heart, and that whatever happened, he intended to retire to private life. He spoke with great feeling, with tears in his eyes, when he protested he had never been a party to any political trickery.

The collection, the largest yet made, was assembled by the Roosevelt memorial association.

FARMER WOUNDED IN GUN FRAY AT ROFF COMMUNITY

Jess Blocker, a farmer living northwest of Roff, was shot and badly injured this morning and Joe Thompson, a neighboring farmer, was on his way to the county jail in custody of officers, charged with the shooting, according to a report which reached here at noon today.

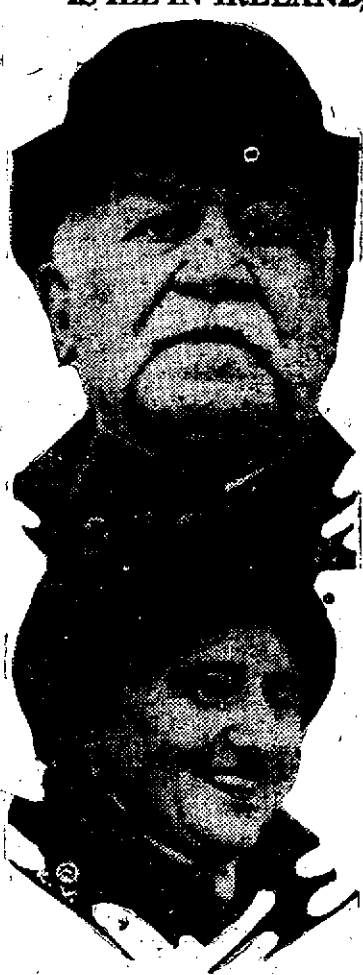

Blocker is said to have been wounded in the left arm with a shotgun, following an alleged exchange of shots. Blocker is said to have used a revolver in the fight.

Little details of the shooting were available early this afternoon. The two men live near each other four miles west and a mile north of Roff. Neighbors said they had been angling in a feud for several months and are thought to have met today in accordance with a pre-arranged plan. Both are about 40 years old and are well known in that section of the country.

The report said Blocker would recover.

FOUR MARRIAGES TO ONE DIVORCE

Wedding Permits in County Show Increase in 1921 Over Previous Year.

Cupid, saucy little god of love, defied the general economic depression last year and increased his 1920 records of marriage licenses in the county by exactly 100, according to records in the office of Court Clerk L. E. Franklin.

During the year 1920, a total of 413 marriage licenses were issued. Last year, the number of wedding permits jumped to 513 in spite of the fact that holiday seasons did not bring their usual rush into the marriage market.

Divorce courts of the county, however, suffered some from the financial stress. While the 513 wedding permits were being issued, only 132 divorce cases were filed, or slightly more than one to every four legal permission to marry. The divorce records for last year is understood to be slightly less than that for the preceding year.

Court officials have advanced two statements to explain the decrease in divorces last year.

"In hard times even the small amount required to procure a divorce is prohibitive to many who, in better times, could easily afford it," one court attache said today.

"When life is toughest, a man and his wife are likely to stick together more closely," was the theory advanced by another court official.

Even a greater increase in matrimony would have been recorded if there had been less doubt in financial circles, it is said. Nothing but the fear of finances for the future kept down an unusually heavy run on the stock of wedding permits.

"Men who two years ago would not have hesitated to commit matrimony or anything else equally serious, have thought twice and have decided not to venture in too deep until there is more light ahead on how they are going to meet their bills," one county official declared.

FAUST HOSPITAL LEASED TO A REGISTERED NURSE

The Faust hospital has been leased to Miss Eugenia Davis, a registered nurse, and she has already taken charge. Miss Davis has been a manager of hospitals for several years, and is said to know all the details of taking care of one.

"Doctors Faust, Lewis and Threlkeld will have nothing to do with the management. They, as well as any other surgeon in the city, will be privileged to perform operations in the operating rooms."

THREATS OF VOLCANO FRIGHTEN VILLAGERS

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 6.—The volcano Popocatepetel, southeast of this city, again began to show serious signs of activity yesterday afternoon. At four o'clock an explosion was heard within the crater, the sounds being audible for some distance, and a great smoke column arose to a considerable height, being visible in this city.

The inhabitants of villages near the base of the volcano were panic stricken and stampeded towards the larger towns further away from the volcano. No earth shocks have been registered.

TWO FAST GAMES ARE DUE TONIGHT

Business College Resolves To Get Scalp of Head Team in League.

With the agreement between the Business College and Teachers College that they play their game, scheduled for next Monday night, tonight, a double-header, instead of the single game between the Battery F and Ada News teams, will be on the bill. That will leave one game for next Monday night between the high school and cement plant teams.

The second team of the Teachers College was defeated at Konawa last night, while none of the first team men have had any games since the holidays. The Business College won its last game with a new line-up and this puts the dope on tonight's game more evenly balanced. Spurred on by their victory, the Business College is laying plans to do that which has not yet been done—defeat the Teachers College.

Although the Ada News team lost its game Monday night to the Business College, manager Wanner states that it has been to the advantage of the News team. With Stotts and Craig on his line-up he reports that his men have been showing up well during a series of work-outs this week. At the same time Battery F, which has been going strong during the past two weeks, is now weakened by the loss of Payne at guard, who is out on account of injuries. This balances the dope here and gives promise for two hot and fast games tonight.

The first game will be called at 7:30. Sam Wilenzick, manager of the Battery F team, reports that he is using Coleman in place of Payne. Payne has played a good game at guard, making it possible several times for his squad to win. He expects to be able to be playing again in a few weeks. Dopesters have not yet expressed themselves as to what effect this will have on the battery men. The Ada News team suffered a relapse with the loss of Cooper at guard earlier in the season, and it is talked that the same thing might result in this case.

USING OF POISON GAS IS ATTACKED

Arms Conference To Take Up Consideration of New Menace.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Consideration of the submarine questions was concluded today by the five naval powers committee with the adoption of the final Root resolution declaring submarine commanders, who with or without orders from their governments, violate the existing international law on submarine warfare, to be guilty of piracy.

The American delegation, through Mr. Root, thereupon brought forward a new proposal to prohibit the use of poison gas in future wars. It was said to have been received favorably, but a decision went over until tomorrow meeting.

The Root resolution, as adopted by the naval committee, was withdrawn in its adoption so that this application would be not only to commanders of submarines which might violate the recognized laws of war, but also commanders of naval vessels of any character. The reason for this modification of the original Root proposal was not disclosed in the official announcement which carried the resolution as it was adopted.

FITZGIBBONS IS CRUSHED. AS CAR IS OVERTURNED

Funeral of Service Man To Be Held Here Sunday Afternoon.

TWO OTHERS INJURED

Chief and Driver Bruised When Thrown Free From Crash.

Pat Fitzgibbons, volunteer fireman, was killed almost instantly at noon today and two other firemen, Chief Somer Jones and Eugene Edsal, driver, slightly injured when a chemical truck overturned when the department was responding to an alarm turned in from a burning car on the Frisco tracks.

Fitzgibbons was about 26 years old and had been with the local fire department since last September, according to Chief Jones. He lives at Sixth and Stockton and is unmarried.

The accident occurred a few minutes after 12 o'clock today. The truck was speeding west on Twelfth street and became ungovernable after hitting a rough place in the street between Stockton and Cherry avenues. It turned completely over and Fitzgibbons, who was riding on the side, was flung beneath it. Jones and Edsal were thrown free and sustained only bruises from which they are expected to recover rapidly.

Doctors at the local hospital, where the dying fireman was rushed as soon as he could be extracted from the debris of the wrecked fire truck, said he was badly crushed in his left side and breast and that the left leg was broken. He lived about 20 minutes.

The chemical truck was almost a complete loss. Wheels of the machine were smashed and chemical tanks torn from the body of the car. The engine was understood not to have been badly damaged.

Funeral services for Fitzgibbons, who was a veteran of the world war, will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home, Sixth and Stockton. Local firemen and the American Legion will have charge of the services and burial will be in Rosedale cemetery.

Ada firefighters said this afternoon Fitzgibbons was considered a plucky volunteer and efficient member of the force.

RAILWAY SEEKS TO SHOW TAXES WERE TOO MUCH

A suit which, upon its completion, promises to set a precedent of considerable interest and importance in the light of taxation in Pontotoc county, was filed yesterday in the district court by the Atchison, Topeka, and Santa Fe railway company against D. W. Swaffar, county treasurer, seeking the refund of taxes under protest.

The railway company is represented by the law firm of Cottingham, Hayes, Green and Melville, Oklahoma City, and B. H. Epperson, local attorney. February 4 has been set as a date for the hearing.

Santa Fe attorneys allege in their petition that the assessed valuation of the company's property in Pontotoc county for 1921 was $441,987. They claim that the county excise board made a total tax levy in the sum of 7.8 mills which included a levy of 3.555 mills for special purposes and a levy of 4.245 mills for current expenses.

Of this last mill levy, it is claimed, .245 is illegal and void as "it is in excess of the maximum mill levy of 4 mills authorized by law to be made for general purposes, exclusive of interest and sinking fund, and raises the company's taxes by the sum of $108.28."

The company has paid the first half of $54.14, of this amount, it is set forth in the petition, but did so under protest. It now seeks judgment for the repayment of the amount paid under protest with interest.

NIGHT AND DAY BANK FALLS TO OPEN TODAY

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 6.—The Night and Day Bank, with deposits of $3,000,000, did not open for business today. State Bank Commissioner J. G. Hughes, said his examiners had been auditing the books of the institution for several days and found an apparent shortage of more than $100,000. A. O. Meisinger, cashier, has not appeared at the bank since Wednesday, it was said.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

HOW TO CONQUER AN ENEMY:—When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.—Proverbs 16:7.

SUBMARINES.

One of the most unexpected features of the arms conference has been the British attitude toward submarines. Along with her prompt acquiescence in the American "capital ship" proposal, with its great sacrifice of present battleships and its provision for future British and American naval equality, Great Britain would like to go much farther than the United States in submarine reduction.

Her preference is for the complete abolition of submarines. In lieu of this, which she puts forward rather as an ideal than a definite demand, Britain wants to abolish the total tonnage of smaller submarines to 60,000 or 65,000 tons instead of the 90,000 tons proposed by this country.

These suggestions enlist the natural sympathy of Americans, who have never become reconciled to the under-water craft, with its assassin character and ugly war record. If it were considered practicable, nothing would give our people greater pleasure than to wipe out this sea-murderer once for all. Such a consummation is, in the minds of many, one of the things for which the war was fought. Most Americans, however, and most nations, do not consider it possible to take such action unless it is made binding on all nations; and the present conference, limited and informal as it is, has no authority to bind the world. That is a task for some future body representing all the powers, big and little.

The other two British proposals seem open to no such objections. It is surely desirable to outlaw the submarine battleships, which are primarily weapons of offense, to be used at a great distance. And with the cruising submarines outlawed, American and the other powers would hardly need so many of the smaller submarines for self-defense.

THE REAL WORLD PROBLEM.

It is reported that many farmers in northern Ohio are going out of business because their efforts have proved unprofitable. Twelve public sales in one district have been held already this fall, and more are forecast. This is but one of many such symptoms in many states.

There is something wrong. The district in question is rarely adapted to fruit farming. It is close to market and transportation centers. What is the trouble?

Have those farmers been raising the wrong kind of produce? Have they concentrated too much on fruits and neglected other possibilities? Have high freight rates put them out of business? Or the low price offered for the produce at the farm? Would better co-operative methods of purchase and sale have solved their problem?

It is all part of the great economic tangle in which the world is involved. There is need for every ounce of food which every farmer can raise. Farmers should be going into farming, not out of it. How is the sound connection to be made between the farmers and the world's table? That is the real world problem of today.

Stamford, Texas, is one town that owes its existence mainly to publicity. When the old Texas Central railroad extended out into the big cow pasture and called the end of the rails Stamford some live wires happened to take up their abode there and they have been on the job ever since. To a man who has lived in western Texas and seen the withering drouths, the location of Stamford does not appeal very strongly, but since the town was founded it has managed to keep itself before the public through the press and a live chamber of Commerce until its name has been spread abroad much farther than many towns much larger and offering better opportunities. The work still goes on, too. The Stamford date line is always before the eye of the reader and the town continues to grow and prosper.

The familiar face of the "dollar of our daddies" is to be changed and a new designed has been adopted. This is the first change in design of the silver dollar since 1878. The head of Liberty which has adorned the millions coined since that time is a portrait of a Philadelphia school teacher, Miss Anna Williams. The new dollars will be put into circulation at once according to a report from the mint.

THE HANDWRITING ON THE WALL IS PAINFULLY PLAIN

The Forum of the Press

A Church-Going People.

An unofficial census of the house of representatives at Washington shows that of the 435 members only 24 are unaffiliated with any church. Of the 96 senators only four are non-church members. In both bodies denominational affiliations are roughly proportional to the numerical rank of the churches in the United States. This was to be expected, but some persons may be surprised to find the total of church membership so large in both branches.

If house and senate are as truly representative of the population of the country as they are supposed to be, there should be no ground for surprise at this showing. Most adults possess at least a nominal connection with some church. "What church do you belong to?" was asked of the man in the story, who replied that he was not a member of any. "Then what church do you stay away from?" pressed his interrogator. Practically all men and women in America either belong to a church or "stay away from" a particular one which their parents attended.

Not everyone is aware that our government conducts a church census every ten years, not at the time of the taking of the regular population census, but "in between." The first was in 1906, under provisions of an act passed by congress four years previously. The second was in 1916. The next will be taken in 1926. In 1906, this special census showed, there were 35,068,000 church members in the United States. In 1916 there were 41,626,000, a gain of 19.5 per cent. The population during that period increased 17.1 per cent.

Even persons who never enter a church owe it a debt for its influence on the community life—a debt that most are frank enough to acknowledge. Christmas day, the greatest religious festival of all the year, witnessed crowded churches. What an inspiration it would be were that attendance approximated on all the Sundays of the coming year!

Puddin' Head.

(Cosmopolitan.)

For twenty years two chess players met daily at Brown's Chop house, took their places silently, silently played their games, and silently departed. For twenty years a third party sat by and silently looked on.

Then one of the two players failed to show up—for the first time in twenty years. After waiting a few minutes, his partner said to the onlooker, "I guess he isn't coming today. Will you play his men?" "Sorry," was the answer, "but I don't know the game."

He had followed every move for twenty years but he didn't know the game. He had watched the drama of king and castle for two decades without sensing a single undercurrent of strategy, speculating on a single motive, or anticipating a single coup.

He had displayed infinite patience in looking at the game, but he could not be bothered looking into it. He showed every symptom of life except its first symptom—curiosity.

He belonged to that listless army of passive observers who clutter up the side lines of business—men who look without seeing, listen without hearing, do without understanding. Placed in an office—at a bench—he would remain twenty years ignorant of his neighbor's job, his superior's problems, his own significance. When the opportunity for advancement came he would have to say, "Sorry, but I don't know the game."

(Arkansas Gazette)
Washington dispatches published recently said that negotiations over Shantung had taken on a more serious aspect when the Japanese, after the receipt of fresh instructions from Tokio, announced that they were not prepared to make any further concessions in their exchanges with the Chinese over the return of the Shantung railroad.

The Chinese have already declared that they can go no further toward a compromise. Everybody must remember how Senator Hiram Johnson and other Republicans stormed and raged about the terrible wrong they said was done China by the Shantung settlement of the Versailles treaty. The United States senate refused to ratify the Versailles treaty. Why are Senator Hiram Johnson and other Republicans who were lately so furiously indignant over Shantung saying nothing about Shantung now?

"When it comes to eating, working and sleeping I'm like a different man from what I was a short time ago," said Herman Kurtztisch, 408 1-2 Norris Place, Milwaukee, with the Northwestern Life Insurance Co., in relating his experience with Tanlac.

"My whole system was about to give way as a result of two years' constant suffering from stomach trouble and I was so run down and worn out I was hardly able to work. I actually dreaded to eat, as after every meal I suffered so terribly from heartburn, and I was so nervous I got little rest day or night.

"If it hadn't been for Tanlac I'm firmly convinced I would have had to resign my place. It came to my aid in the nick of time and I am strong for it. Tanlac was worth at least fifty times what it cost me."

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat too Much Meat Which Clogs Kidneys, Then the Back Hurts.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble. Adv.

RATE COMMITTEE OF OIL OUTFITS MEETING TODAY

(By the Associated Press)
TULSA, Jan. 6.—The rate committee of the Western Petroleum Refiners association met in the office of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association today to discuss freight rates and other matters pertaining to the shipping problems of the independent refining industry with Clifford Thorne, rate expert of Chicago.

The meeting is expected to occupy most of today and may possibly extend over tomorrow.

That the question of attempting to secure favorable rates on refined products, which will enable the independent refiners of the mid-continent to compete in more distant territories, will be taken up seems assured although A. V. Holmes, chairman of the rate committee, refused to make a statement as to the exact nature of matters to be considered by the meeting. This is one of the most vital issues with the independent refiners at the present time and undoubtedly will be taken up, others said.

KONAWA GUARDS
DEFEAT SECOND
TEACHERS TEAM

KONAWA, Okla., Jan. 6.—(Special)—Company F. O. N. G., last night defeated the second team of the Teachers College of Ada in a fast game played on the company court here, score 31 to 11. From the start the home team had the best of the game and continued to advance their lead until the last few minutes of play. The Teachers College first team recently defeated the local guardsmen 23 to 21 in a tough basketball game played at Ada.

Stellar forward work of the Wano brothers made it possible for the Konawa men to win by the large score, easily crushing the poorer team work and slack guarding of the visitors. The teachers were plucky, however, and put up a running fight until the final whistle. One disadvantage of the visiting team was the playing on a concrete floor, while they were accustomed to a wood floor.

LOST CHEROKEES
MAKES ROMANTIC
PAGE IN HISTORY

(By the Associated Press)
GROVE, Okla., Jan. 5.—The removal of a number of Cherokee Indians from Delaware county to the community enterprise that the Keetoowah society of that tribe is founding in Cherokee county has served to recall here the story of the "Lost Cherokees," a story that is included in all of the later day Indian histories but in varying accounts. Old time Cherokees of this section have lately brought forth what they declare is the "only true account" of the "Lost Cherokees" ever given to the public. These authorities say they obtained their information from their grand parents and insist that the version is absolutely correct.

It happened back in 1838, their account runs, when the Cherokees living in what is now called the "old south" sold a portion of their lands. This created an extreme bitterness among a faction that was opposed to disposing of the tribal property. Members of this faction forecast the sale as the beginning of the white man's encroachment upon the Indians and argued that if the sale was consummated it would only be a question of time when the Indians would be dispossessed of all of their holdings to the benefit of the pale faces. The Indians who are now recalling the "Lost Cherokees" assert their grandparents described to them the bitterness with which the dispute raged between those who favored selling a part of the tribe's property and those who opposed. Finally, the faction opposed to the sale delivered an ultimatum to their opponents to the effect that if the sale was consummated those opposing would migrate west. The sale went through and the dissatisfied Cherokees started out for a new home.

Bitterness in the fight was lost and the faction that favored the sale accompanied the immigrants as far west as Mississippi river with entreaties that they reconsider and stay. But no amount of persuasion would influence them to change their minds. When the river was reached, the advocates of the sale turned back to their homes and the other faction crossed the stream and turned their faces to the west.

RESEARCH HELPS
OIL INDUSTRIES
OVER OKLAHOMA

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Jan. 5.—Much work has been done in the interest of the oil and gas industry in Oklahoma during the last fiscal year by the United States petroleum experiment station at Bartlesville, according to the annual report of the secretary of the interior, a copy of which has been received here. The station advised producers as to meeting difficulties in drilling and developing wells, studied losses by evaporation, conducted a thorough investigation of underground conditions in the Hewitt and Deane fields, studied problems of refining and devised a method of improving the quality of natural gas gasoline, the report asserted.

Rapid development continued during the year in the Osage nation despite adverse conditions, according to the report. Two sales of oil and gas leases covering nearly 62,000 acres were made for a bonus consideration of more than $8,500,000, the report said. Discovery of the Burbank pool greatly stimulated activity in the western side of the county the report continued. The production of oil during the year in the Osage nation amounted to 20,625,127.40 barrels and the income on royalties and bonuses for the period was $15,166,297.01, according to the report.

Referring to the department's jurisdiction over the five civilized tribes, the report stated that the annual receipts and disbursements handled by department were $19,853,181.54. Money belonging to individual Indians was expended in the sum of $2,737,951.01 for farms, buildings, equipment and maintenance, while $6,990,736.25 was credited to accounts of individuals. Restrictions were removed from 135,960 acres, involving applications of 1,770 Indians, according to the report. Despite the drop in the price of oil, 340 restricted Indians paid a federal income tax of $514,380, the report stated.

Forty-two babies in 44 years, the record of an English woman who died in 1726, is said to be still unbeaten.

Mrs. Tyler's Place
In Ku Klux May Be Vacant for a While

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 5.—No steps will be taken at this time to fill the place of Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler, as assistant head of the propaganda department of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, according to E. W. Clarke, Imperial Kludge of the organization and head of that department, who stated today that the affairs of the department were in excellent condition and he would assume the burden of the work personally.

Mrs. Tyler, who resigned last night, stated in a written communication to members of the Klan that her action was necessitated by serious illness of her daughter, who is suffering from tuberculosis.

In the statement Mrs. Tyler referred to herself as a woman who had no official connection with the Klan and declared she would always be with the organization "in spirit."

PUBLIC ADVISED TO SEE

The local engagement of D. W. Griffith's wonder spectacle "Way Down East" which comes to the McSwain Theatre for a stay of two days beginning Monday night is expected to be one of the greatest successes this city has ever seen. From all reliable sources of information it is manifest that Griffith has outdone himself in "Way Down East". He has taken a simple story of a phase of New England life that is all but too swiftly passing from view and employed its plain people with their quaint characters and their rugged sense of the honest and the human and unfolded a series of adventures and restraints which illumine the ever troubled path of love. As Mr. Griffith himself likes to put it "Way Down East" is a tale of love and lovers in a frame of such exquisite charm and pastoral beauty the most cautious of critics have said many of its scenes are worthy to hang in the best art galleries of the world. Rising up from its chair and its humors in colorful contrasts it rushes to a climax in the powerful ice jam and the breaking up of the floe on the river which combines every element of stirring drama and becomes at once the most astounding and remarkable scene ever seen within a playhouse in all times.

TWO OF SOONERS' GAMES IN VALLEY ARE CALLED OFF

NORMAN, Jan. 5.—(Special)—Two of Oklahoma's Missouri Valley conference basketball games with the Kansas Aggies have been dropped in order that room might be made on the 1922 schedule for the Oklahoma Aggies, according to Ben G. Owen, director of Oklahoma athletics, Tuesday.

The Oklahoma Aggies have been given January 28 at Stillwater and March 1 at Norman for the two games with the Sooners. The 1922 schedule opens with Grinnell at Norman, Saturday, January 7. Every member of the conference will play one game at Oklahoma and the Sooners invade every court in the conference before the close of the 1922 season.

The Sooners cagers have been working since Friday, December 30, under the direction of Hugh V. McDermott, basketball coach. The basketball men returned early from their vacation in order that they might get a few extra days on the court since their schedule opened within four days after school opened after holidays.

The revised schedule is as follows:

Jan. 7—Grinnell at Norman.
Jan. 11—Drake at Norman.
Jan. 13—Ames at Norman.
Jan. 20—Kansas Aggies at Norman.
Jan. 27—Nebraska at Norman.
Jan. 28—Oklahoma Aggies at Stillwater.
Jan. 31—Kansas at Norman.
Feb. 3—Washington at Norman.
Feb. 10—Kansas Aggies at Manhattan.
Feb. 11—Kansas at Lawrence.
Feb. 18—Washington at Norman.
Feb. 22—Nebraska at Lincoln.
Feb. 24—Grinnell at Grinnell.

Feb. 25—Oklahoma Aggies at Norman.
Mar. 4—Missouri at Norman.

Dyer Unwilling To Let Probe Rest in Office of Hight

(By the Associated Press)

ARDMORE, Jan. 6.—While no charges of laxity of law enforcement are filed against Chief of Police W. R. Hight, City Manager Kirk Dyer announced last night that he would not let the criticism of that office be passed without notice and has requested of the attorney general that information which was gathered against the officer.

Elmer E. Fulton announced last Wednesday that he would not file out proceedings against Hight because of the provision in the city charter listing the power of enforcing the laws and ordinances in the hands of the city manager.

J. B. Champion, chief attorney for Sheriff Buck Garrett, announced ready for trial yesterday afternoon on the outster charge that has been filed against the sheriff. He will be defended by 15 attorneys, Mr. Champion said.

The tailor of the future will take his measurements for a suit of clothes with the camera. A special tape measure marked with big figures is fitted from the neck to the feet, and three others around the back, waist and hips. A photograph is then taken of the tailor's client from the front, side and back. The tailor thus obtains a permanent record with all the necessary measurements.

Winter Wheat Hits Lowest Level Says December 1 Report

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 5.—The condition of winter wheat in Oklahoma on December 1 was 54 percent which was lowest recorded in many years, says a resume of conditions issued here today by H. H. Schutz, federal crop statistician for Oklahoma. The condition is 22 points below the average for the United States, the report says. The condition of winter wheat in Kansas, according to the report, was 60 percent of normal; Texas, 42 percent; New Mexico, 60 percent; and Montana, 58 percent. Other states report fair to very good conditions, the report states.

The acreage sown in this state before December 1 was estimated at 90 percent of last year's total or 3,550,000 acres. The greatest reduction was noted in the eastern part. The total acreage put to wheat in the United States was 44,293,000, the report reveals.

The price of winter wheat in Oklahoma on December 1 was 86 cents, according to the survey. At the same time in 1920 it was $1.35, the report recalled, and added that Kansas reported a price of 93 cents for December 1, 1922, while the average in the United States was 95.2 cents.

Hope is still held out for a fair crop should Oklahoma receive moisture before extreme cold weather grips the state. On account of the weakened condition of the wheat roots, due to lack of moisture, a severe freeze, it was said, would probably do serious damage.

The state report shows the conditions of the crop on December 1, in various sections of the state as follows: Northwest 45; north 68; northeast 72; west 46; center 55; east 62; southwest 35; south 45; and southeast 70.

Mine Workers Stop Relief Payment To Striking Kansans

(By the Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 6.—President Frank Farrington of the Illinois United Mine Workers, has announced that the monthly assessment for benefit of Kansas strikers has been discontinued. This act is in line with orders sent by International President John L. Lewis several weeks ago, but Farrington said the Illinois miners are discontinuing the benefit money for another season.

"The Kansas strikers no longer need it," he said.

Mr. Farrington announced that votes by the Illinois miners on the authority of their district convention to levy the assessment will be continued. The ballots will be counted at the state headquarters January 16.

The state executive board recently voted to submit to a referendum vote the question of collecting a $1 a month assessment, which the international discontinued. This proposition is not submitted to a referendum and it has been dismissed in a signed statement issued by President Farrington, who announced that recent developments in the Kansas situation made it "unnecessary to continue the $1 assessment levied by our Peoria convention."

PITTSBURG, Kan., Jan. 6.—John Atkinson and Guy Flynn of the Illinois committee in charge of the distribution of relief for the Kansas miners said today that they knew of no plan for cutting off the relief. They asserted that a story that relief would be cut off was being circulated here by partisans of the international miners' union.

Mystery of Tribal Lore Brought Into Play When Foch Gets Indian Title

(By the Associated Press)

BISMARCK, N. D., Jan. 6.—All the mystery of the Indian understanding of life, earth, water and sky entered into ceremony in which the members of the Teton tribe of the Sioux named Marshal Foch and smoked with him the pipe of peace, according to Melvin R. Gilmore, curator of the North Dakota Historical Society. In the rush of coming the ceremony within the allotted a few minutes, a wrong interpretation was placed upon the name bestowed by Red-tomahawk, according to Mr. Gilmore, who had the Indian chief repeat the name after the ceremony, that he might be certain of having it correctly placed in his historical records. Marshal Foch is placed in the mythology of the Teton as Charging Lightning, the word for thunder and lightning, being almost the same.

Dakotas Joined French.

Dr. Gilmore's historical statement of the event says in part:

"Marshal Foch was met by a delegation of Teton-Dakotas from the Standing Rock reservation of the Dakota nation. The leader of this delegation was Red-tomahawk, who ceremonially presented a pipe to Marshal Foch, and also conferred upon him a name in the Dakota nation. In his speech Marshal Foch said: 'My friend: The first time I ever heard of the great general, Marshal Foch, was at the time when we sent our young men to France. At that time I never thought that I should ever see the great general; but today I have the honor and the pleasure to see him, and I am glad. The young men of the French nation and young men of the Dakota nation fought together in the same cause against our common enemy, and some of both nations died together in that struggle and were buried in the same ground.'

"Then he held up the pipe and said: 'Among my people the Dakotas it is our custom to offer the pipe and smoke together, so in like manner I wish to smoke' with the Marshal and to give him this pipe as a token of friendship. Now the meaning of the pipe and its parts are these: the pipe bowl is made from catlinite, a red stone which is found only in southwestern Minnesota. The stone in this use signifies that our friend shall be durable and unbroken. The hollow of the pipestem through which we draw the smoke straight, signifying that the words proceeding from our lips shall be just and true, and that our paths shall be straight. The colors of these ribbons upon the pipestem also have their meaning. The white signifies that all former differences are cleared away, and we shall be candid friends. The red ribbon is the color of blood and signifies that we are all of one blood.'

"Then Red-tomahawk held the pipe first to the North, then East, to South and to the West; then also to the Sky, then downwards to Mother Earth. This was a form of invocation to all the Divine powers.

Foch Puffs on Pipe.

"He then lighted the pipe and drew upon it, and then offered the mouthpiece to the Marshal, who also drew upon it, and then to Major Welch.

Red Tomahawk was obliged to abbreviate the ceremony because of the lack of time. He also abbreviated the explanations of the symbolism permitted all should have been seated upon the ground.

"The material for smoking, with which the pipe was filled, was a mixture of tobacco and the inner bark of a native shrub, pieces of dogwood, Cornus stolonifera.

"Tobacco is invested with something of mystery and sacredness in the Indian thought, and was used ceremonially in the manner of incense.

"After delivering the pipe to Marshal Foch Red-tomahawk declared his desire and purpose to confer upon the Marshal the honor of a name in the Dakota nation.

Wakinyan Watkpe. This name with which Red-tomahawk invested the Marshal has significance in connection with the historic message sent by the Marshal at the first battle of the Marne: 'The situation is excellent, I am attacking!' The meaning of the Dakota word wakinyan is to make an attack, 'to charge.' The meaning of the Dakota word wakinyan is lightning. There fore the meaning of the name is 'Lightning-in-attack,' or 'Lightning-which-attacks.'
